Fifty-eight percent of the seniors, 42 percent of the juniors, 35 percent of the sophomores, and 18 percent of the freshmen received high honors and honors, it was revealed at a chapel service early this week.

Dr. Thelma Culver remarked about the first semester honor roll at the chapel program and read a list of all students receiving high honors who obtained a grade point average of 2.50 to 3.00 this semester. Applause was given by the student body in acknowledgement of these students. Honor students with grade point averages of 2.00 and 2.50 were also acknowledged.

Undergraduate students who received a 2.4 average for two consecutive semesters are members of Zeta Kappa Rho, the college honor society. Eunice Lintz is president of the organization and Daphne Wells is secretary-treasurer. Graduate students who have maintained a grade point average of 2.4 throughout their college careers, who have good character and have received excellent on their senior comprehensives are elected into Phi Delta Lambda; a national organization of the colleges of the Church of the Nazarene, honoring students who have done meritorious work.

Dr. Culver and Miss Washburn are the council members from NNC who represent the school at a conference of all Nazarene College Phi Delta Lambda chapters every four years.

Members of the 1949 graduating class receiving the honor of being elected into this society are: Ruth Angel, Fairy Hawthorne, Mary Keller, Glen Dayton, Alice Johnson, Kenneth Potter and Helen Hull.

Members of the Zeta Kappa Rho are: Lyle Alloway, Zola Al-yea, Deloris Bloomquist, Patricia Bolerjack, Betty Collins, Fred Fowler, Chet Galloway, Gwendolyn Galloway, James Gross, William Harris, Alvin House, Gene Hovee, Virgie Johnson, Jean Kirkpatrick, Paul Kunkel, Eunice Lintz, Cora Lunsford, Allan Miller, Ken Montgomery, Genevieve Motyka, Lois Oberg, Harris Pearson, Doug Powers, Pauline Rinehart, Talma Rummel, Lloyd Smith, Dale Swinney, Daphne Wells, Juanita Weston and Joyce Wright.

Seniors receiving top honors for a 3.00 grade point average are: Eunice Lintz, Richard Dickson and Herbert Quantz. Those receiving high honors are, David Alexander, Deloris Bloomquist, Douglas Powers, Juanita Weston, George Evans, Préntiss Shafer, Donovan Juliar, Talma Rummel, Erma Willingham, Loren Loeber, Verna Ellsworth, Don Adamson, Leota Sowards, Virgie Johnson, Elmer Schmierer, Rudy Sauter, Lucy Loeber, James Mulligan, Paul Beals, Velma Butler, June Nakada, Fred Fowler, Don Farrant, Stanley Nordmo and Alvin House.

Those receiving honors are Pete Burkhart, Harry Gross, Harris Pearson, Ken Montgomery, Belle Shaw, Edith Anderson, Ralph

General Missionary Society To Bring 'China Challenge'

Our General Missionary society has planned a special film to be brought to us in chapel in the near future. Through the Youth for Christ Internatoinal we will see in technicolor the 45 minute film "China Challenge" taken by Bob Pierce.

Pierce traveled 3000 miles in China taking pictures of general conditions there. Here is an inside story of China and one you will want to see. Many good results have been attained from this stirring missionary picture and we hope to see many more.

CHS Student Pres. Challenges Olivet Hi To 4-Week SS Contest

Harry Williamson, as representative of College High Student Body, will present a challenge to Olivet High School for a Sunday School contest beginning March 5 for the last four Sundays of the College Church S. S. contest. It will be on a percentage basis.

If Olivet accepts his challenge, it will require the full co-operation of the College High Student Body to win this contest.

An interesting program has been planned for opening exercises the next four Sundays. Each of the four classes will have charge of different Sundays.

"If you want to see your classmates perform, and many hidden talents uncovered, draf yourself out of bed and come to Sunday School," says Harry.

COLLEGE HI STUDE GETS WEATHER-BOUND — HOME

"Do you think he'll ever come back?" "I wonder where he is right now?" These and other thoughts entered the minds of various C.H.S. students when Wayne Thompson didn't return after a three or four day visit to his home. Wayne must really like Camas, Washington, as he stayed there for two weeks. Do you think the weather could have had anything to do with it?

Warfare Opens at Morrison Hall; Hadley and Chapman on Sidelines

Warefare has begun at Morrison Hall. It will continue for six weeks with Tapley's Torpedoes, Funk's Fiends, Wright's Wildcats, Anderson's Amazons and Rinehart's Roughnecks all fighting for top honors.

The girls receive merits and demerits for various things such as regular church attendance, untidy rooms, observance of quiet hours etc., and at the end of the six weeks the winning side will be treated to free cokes while the team with the lowest number of points will be seen washing court windows.

Hadley Hall is on a similar system. They are using the merit and demerit system and it is reported that it is working out very well. A list of the merits and de-

Proposed Changes To Be Voted On

Proposed additions and changes in the Constitution of the Associated Student Body of the Northwest Nazarene College which have been approved by the student council and which will be voted on by the associated students in the near future are:

Article III, Sec. 4; The Sergeant-at Arms shall be elected from the College High School.

Article III, Sec. 5; Class Representative shall be elected by the popular vote of the respective classes.

Article IV, Sec. 3; The duties of the Secretary shall be to keep a record and POST A COPY of all the proceedings of all meetings both of the Associated Students and of the Student Council.

Article V, Sec. 1; The eSergeant-at-Arms will be elected from the College High School.

Article VI, Sec. 2; The Oasis Editor shall nominate four candidates for the Assistant Editorship. The Student Council shall vote on two and these names shall be submitted to the Associated Students for election on the same ballot as that for the President.

Article VI, Sec. 3; The Assistant Editor shall automatically become the Editor of the Oasis the year following his term of office as the Assistant Editor, hence the necessity of his being a Sophomore at the time of his election as Assistant Editor, since the elections are held in the Spring preceding his taking office in the Fall. In the event of a vacancy in either the office of Editor or Assistant Editor, the Student Council shall have power to fill the vacancy by appointment, subject to the approval of the Administrative Council and the Associated Students.

Book Store Opening Culminates Large Expansion Program; Was Library

Opening of the new college book-store culminates an expansion program which included the addition of a new business administration department and enlargement of the book-store facilities.

A new $700 case of Shaeffer fountain pens and pen and pencil sets is one of the many new features added to the new store.

"Before 1943 the space now occupied by the book-store was a part of the school library which was moved to the R. T. Williams library building that year," reports Mrs. L. T. Corlett. Rev. Ray Miller was head librarian the last years that the library occupied the space from the Registrar's office through the present book-store.

Magazines were kept in what was the old book-store, but what is now the storage space for the surplus supplies for the book-store. Within a short time, a rental library of Christian fiction and new publications will be a part of the store's many functions.

Many new items and new lines of stock have been added and more will be added when Mr. Johnson returns from his trip back east in April. New brands of candy-bars direct from the factory add a much greater variety in the candy-bar department.

"Tones and color-scheme of the book-store were planned to make the store cheerful and to make it restful to the eyes," said Mr. Johnson, college business manager.

Mrs. Johnson and her staff; Dorothy Davis, Mrs. Olive Herron, Janette Pease, and Irene Leedholm, are pleased with their new location and additional space in which they have to work.

OASIS EDITOR GIVES REPORT TO STUDENTS

Paul Kunkel, editor of the Oasis, has stated that the annual is nearing completion, as the first 150 pages will be given to the printers by March 1.

Kunkel, with the assistance of Jim Galloway, associate editor, and De Lois Trovillion and Gene Hovee who head the make-up and literary staffs respectively, has directed work on the Oasis so that he expects to be able to present it to the student body by May 15.

Photography is nearly completed since pictures of the various clubs and organizations were taken recently. The literary work is almost finished also.

Mr. Swanson of Caxton's has stated that the setting of type will be started soon because a considerable portion of the book has already been turned over to the printers.

Kunkel said that he is soon to compile an index for the Oasis which will include the students' names and their home towns.

The Oasis-staff will be corresponding with students who have dropped school since the beginning of the year with the expectation that quite a number will want to purchase a copy of the annual.

"I would like to thank the student-body very much for the lovely flowers sent to me during my recent stay in the hospital."

Phyllis Roberson

"The flowers I received from the student-body while I was ill were greatly appreciated."

Matthen Presents 'Humor in Music'

Paul Matthen's presentation of music from Early 16th century musicians to contemporary composers was enjoyed by all. Compositions by the great composers Cavalli, Bach, Handel, Brahms and Faure were sung.

This morning in chapel a program was also given by Mr. Matthen entitled "Humor in Music." He will pay a visit to the a cappella choir and from one to three o'clock this afternoon he will hold voice auditions of students.

Strictly Confidential

by Sassiety Sal

"Double, double; toil and trouble" said the old hags in one of Shakespeare's plays to which I add my own feeble little "woe is me". What a week this has been. Seems that someone is always "discovering" my identity and thus a goodly number of poor innocents, including my dear friend Frosty, are burned at the stake. I keep telling you that guessing games don't do any good when it comes to Sal 'cause I'm your next-door neighbor and you wouldn't suspect me in a hundred years.

Interesting indeed, are the news notes which my spies have slipped beneath my plate in the dining hall this week. In fact, some of the items were so hot that I was afraid Grace Ellis would get burned when she removed my dishes. But she didn't.

First of all, I must tell you that my own secret heart-throb (Thub Tumping, to you) broke down and dated a sweet little Miss from California the other night. Good going, T.T.! If I can't rate with you I defer gladly to a girl as nice as Freda.

Nelda Ramick up and went to Arkansas this week. Seems that she is lonesome for the thrill of a real old Arkansas twister. Sorry to see you go, Nellie, but glad you didn't take your musician with you. Don't worry about him—we'll see that he doesn't get too lonesome.

Eny, meany, miny, mo—Who's turn is it tonight. 'Tis heard that's the way Marilyn Hoidal does it.

Someone asked me if anyone had ever asked Dan Jackson why he didn't date Vi Leighton. What about it, Danny? Seems as if you two might find a lot in common if you took time to get acquainted.

Does anyone know anything about Dee Lovett's "mystery man?" All I can find out is that there is one such person. How about it, gang?

Those new hair-cuts in vogue among the male population are stunning. At least I felt stunned after seeing the first few.

Oh, oh! There's the bell and my French isn't done. Maybe Arnie Finkbeiner will help me out today. He always has his lesson. So long!

Much Ado About Mangum

Many surprise packages and many little acts of kindness were evidence that the past week was "Heart Sister" week at Mangum Hall. Names drawn from the big Valentine box determined the recipients of each day's special remembrance, and many other clever ideas were carried out before Valentine's Day when the secret Heart Sisters were revealed.

Highlighting the Valentine season will be the big Valentine party tonight for nurses and their friends in Mangum Hall parlor. Plans have been made to make this party a big event on 1950's holiday calendar.

Dr. Lauren Seaman was guest speaker at a most inspiring nurses' prayer meeting held recently. Following his message, Dr. Seaman showed several films picturing the mission work in Africa. Climaxing the service was a tape recording of the "Hallelujah Chorus" sung by Bible School students in Swaziland.

Besides Dr. Seaman, the nurses were happy to have as their guests Rev. and Mrs. Paul Schmelzenbach, Prof. and Mrs. Francis Sutherland, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Wesche, and many other friends. Guests are always welcome at our prayer meetings and we are sure that anyone who attends will feel that the time spent has been well repaid.

Good news came to the freshman class recently when Miss Miller announced that their capes had arrived. Fully uniformed now with capes and caps, the freshmen really feel like full-fledged nurses.

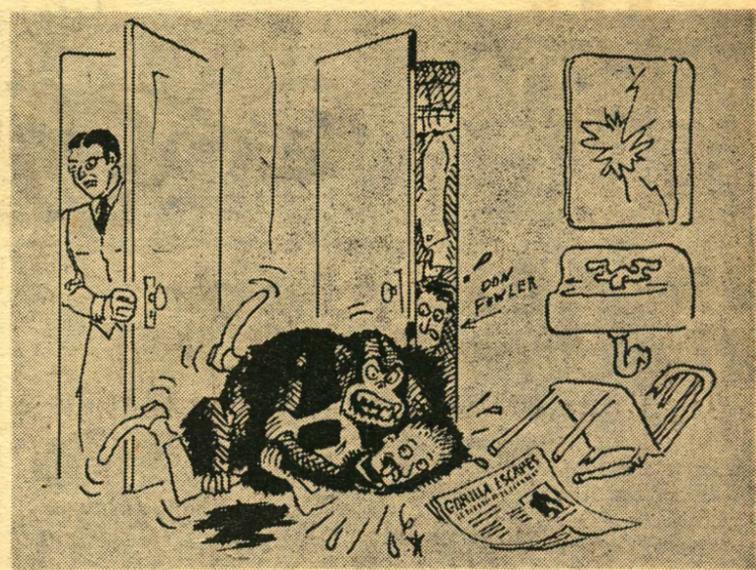

DARLENE VAN SCHAICK—ALLEN STURGIS ENGAGED

Announcement of their engagement was made by Darlene Van Schaick and Allen Sturgis at an engagement party on February 14, at the A. E. Herron home.

Small paper hearts were hung from the lights and arches, and a large red and white heart graced the table, from which red and white streamers were draper, all of which gave the proper sweet-heart effect.

The surprise engagement was made by the use of a small jigsaw puzzle of hearts with names written on them, enclosed in small envelopes, which were given to each one present.

At the close of the evening, a delicious lunch was served by Edith Herron.

"Fowler, this will mean 20 demerits for you if you don't quiet down!"

WE NEED A REVIVAL!

by Fred Fowler

I have no prerogative in writing this article and if it seems like my finger is pointing to others, one need only to look at my thumb and see that it points to me. However, a liberalist could have eyes that see not and ears that hear not and still recognize the need of a revival. In the search for truth and even the conquest of it we must be on the alert for any misplaced emphasis of its aspects lest we falsify and unbalance the relationship of truth in the different areas of life.

Somehow we must revive the spiritual undertone of N.N.C. We must trust in the Lord with all our hearts and lean not unto our own understanding. The important lessons, I feel, are not learned in the classroom. What a tragedy if we are "ever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth." Oh that we might all "seek first the kingdom of God" not only in motto but in deed and truth, for a "theory without a practice is errevelent."

If we really want a revival we'll have to discipline our lives. We'll have to take time to pray. The disciples didn't say teach us "how to pray" (although that's important) but "teach us to pray," to have the willingness to pray. None of us are so homely that we don't love a looking glass but if Augustine said, "The sufficiency of my merit is to know that my merit is not sufficient," perhaps all of us could humble ourselves before God until we become a "beseeching" disciple like Paul. After all if we're too busy to pray for a revival, perhaps we're too busy and our emphasis is misplaced.

Dr. Chapman said, "One good revival is better proof of the reality and desirability of revivals than all the lectures of the experts. Praying and getting answers from God is better than all an encyclopedia can say on the subject. "What do you say fellow-students? Shall we look at the "beam" instead of the "mote?" I will and I believe you will, and therefore I believe we will have a revival.

The Outcast Kittens

By Library Gals (Door Chickens)

Their witch was waiting and she told them both to hop on the back of her broom and away they went with such a swoop that Squeegee tried to howl but the witch laughed at him.

"People will laugh if you do no better," warned Ghosty.

The witch's wild laugh rang as dipping and gliding they sped through the sky. Both kittens were breathless. Things all blended in a moving panorama of lights and shadows. They sped over desert, mountains, and a valley, green and fertile. Suddenly they both realized with a start that they were no longer moving or on the witch's broom but in a tree.

They climbed down to see where they were and found that they were on the campus of N. N.C. But then with characteristic cat philosophy, they decided to make the best of a bad—or was it good?—situation before trying to find the real place.

First they went to the Crusader office and messed up all the type for Tom Kelly (which the latter didn't appreciate fully). So the next day Tom had to spend all day—cutting classes etc.—getting the type back in place, and as a result of the delay, the paper was several days late. Even the finished product wasn't very good, for Tom forgot to proof read it and in Wesche's sport column it read that Millard Reynolds had been thrown to first by Joanne Hutchins for a beautiful out in the outfield right. Another misprint stated that when Dr. Culver had been putting in a new light bulb in her psychology class one morning, one of those unearthly (I suppose that means heavenly or angelic) freshmen students shot a spitwad which broke the desk in a thousand pieces.

But what happened to poor little Squeegee and Ghosty is almost too sad to relate! They were so very tired when they got through messing up the type for Tom! They suddenly relaxed in utter exhaustion and fell sound asleep, only to be rudely awakened by Tom the next morning finding Ghosty black and Squeegee blacker with tails tied together. Well, they had heard of a lady called Miss Wilson on the campus and decided to ask her assistance in untying their tails. This she would do on one condition, that they would live with her. This they consented to and now they reside happily at Morrison Hall where no one ever laughs when Squeegee tries to howl.

Home Season Ends Tomorrow Nite As Broncs, Crusaders Clash in Final

Long-Hibbard-Wesche Playoffs Tonight Mills-Cunningham Tourney Next Week

Girls' basketball moves into the spotlight tonight with the playoffs for the Long-Hibbard-Wesche trophy in the College gym. Last year the SLAs took the championship and the ADPs took runner-up honors.

In order to gain permanent possession of the trophy a society must win the play-offs three consecutive years. The tourney was inaugurated last season when three students, Harold Long, Bud Hibbard and Lilburn Wesche took pity on the weaker sex and presented the trophy to them.

The Olympians appear slight favorites for this years championship with the ADPs as the likeliest contenders. Lois Williamson and Marilyn Cavender pace the Oly attack while Glenajeon Frazier has been leading the ADPs.

Next Thursday or Friday the male counterpart of the Long-Hibbard-Wesche tourney, the Mills-Cunningham play-offs will be held. Defending champions in the meet are the SLAs and they will probably be favored to win this year. The LSPs, runner-ups last year could be dangerous as could the ADPs.

Another tournament, one which will include all players including the varsity will probably be staged following the end of the collegiate cage season. This tourney will be entirely for fun and nothing but society prestige will be at stake. The SLAs and Olys with practically the entire varsity on their rosters will be co-favorites for this meet.

On the long end of a four game winning streak NNC's improving Crusaders will attempt to keep their victory skein intact tomorrow night when they play host to Boise Junior College in Central gym. The tilt will conclude the 1950 home cage season. Still left on the schedule however are two games at BJC, Feb. 20 and 27, and two at Southern Idaho, Feb. 24-25.

Both teams appear very evenly matched according to past scores and tomorrow's tiff promises to be a spine-tingler. The Broncs are paced by a Mutt and Jeff combination of 6 foot 7 inch Allen Hubinger and 5 foot 8 inch Joe Dietrich who have averaged close to 30 points per game between them.

The Crusaders found the victory train last week and, although hard-pressed to stay on managed to make the grade and post a four game streak. The orange and black took the measure of Southern Idaho twice 69-63 and 46-43.

In the first game, the locals blew a 17 point lead midway in the game and were forced into overtime before coming through with the win. The score was tied 59-59 at the end of the regulation period. Reynolds with 19 points and Iles with 11 led scoring.

In the second tilt the Crusaders maintained a five to 10 point spread until late in the fray when Wallace hit a pivot shot to narrow the count to 46-43.

LSPs Take Close Wins To Retain First Place

Boys' Standings Feb. 13

LSP	4	0
SLA	2	1
ADP	1	2
Oly	0	4

The LSPs took a pair of close wins last week to remain atop the boys' society basketball race. The leaders squeaked past the ADPs 20-16 and bested the SLAs 25-20 in their stiffest tests of the year. Hendrix paced the ADP conquest with eight tallies, and Wesche and Howard Johnson each bucketed eight to lead in the victory of the ADPs.

The SLAs took over second by rollicking past the ADPs behind the sharp-shooting of Jensen and Hills. Meanwhile the Olys remained winless by dropping decisions to the LSPs and ADPs. Hills and Galloway led the Olympians to a near upset of the ADPs but a last quarter splurge cost them the game.

The Olys took advantage of the LSP second team to post a 15-14 halftime advantage but finally lost 44-22. Hopkins and Wesche with 14 and 10 points led the defending champs. Hills and Galloway were best for the losers.

Eastern Oregon fell twice 72-45 and 62-61. The first game was not in doubt as the Crusaders hit 56 percent of their shot attempt. Beukelman with 18 tallies, Reynolds with 14 and Jamison with 12 took scoring honors for NNC. Reynolds caged 14 points and Hubbard nine to pace the Crusaders. Records led the Mountaineers with 12 markers.

Sizzling Trojans Tip Warriors 41-32

College High's amazing Trojans sent Meridian's highly favored Warriors reeling home under a stinging 41-32 upset reversal last Saturday night.

The Trojans, paced by the play of center Ray Williams controlled play practically all the way. Only in the fourth quarter, when Meridian hit for six quick points to draw with in four points of the winners were the Trojans outplayed.

CHS held a 17-13 lead at half-time and shot into a ten point advantage midway in the third stanza. The Warriors rallied to cut the lead to 36-32 but Arnie Van Hess swished two beauties from the side to break up the game.

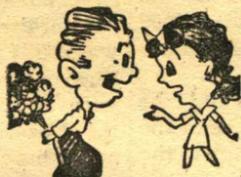

Williams, easily the outstanding player on the floor, took scoring honors with 14 tallies. Had-dock of Meridian notched 11. The Warriors, far off in their shooting, were unable to cope with the backboard play of Williams and the floor work of Van Hess. At one stage in the tilt the losers missed ten straight tip-in attempts before losing possession of the ball.

In other games the Trojans humbled Bruneau 46-41 with a last quarter surge that overcame a six point deficit, and mauled Grandview 41-18.

Biology Prof Talks On 'Geology in Idaho'

Dr. L. M. Stanford, Biology professor from the College of Idaho, spoke Tuesday to the History of Idaho class on "Geology of Idaho."

He stated that Idaho is relatively young being only about 120,000,000 years old. Dr. Stanford also stated that if all time from the beginning of the geological age were condensed in one year, that recorded time would only be one minute and 12 seconds before midnight of December 31.

Dr. Stanford is a member of the "Rock and Mineral Society," and states that geology is only a side line.

CHERRY MEMORIAL CHURCH AT ABILENE, KANSAS BUILT BY BYRON LEE-MARVIN COOK, NNC GRADS

The Cherry Memorial Church of the Nazarene in Abilene, Kansas: another achievement of the 100 years cooperation between local churchmen and men of the Fort Riley garrison. Two Northwest Nazarene College graduates were responsible for this bldg.

When opening services at the new Cherry Memorial Church of the Nazarene were held in Abilene, Kansas, February 5, the new building named for the pastor who had first planned the church, stood a symbol of the friendship between two ministers, Captain Byron Lee, chaplain of the 10th Infantry Division stationed at Fort Riley, and Rev. Marvin Cook, pastor of the church. These two men graduated from N.N.C. in 1944 and 1943, respectively.

In response to Rev. Cook's call for assistance, Capt. Lee asked his soldier congregation for voluntary labor on off-duty days. He received immediate and whole-hearted support from not only his own congregation, but from men of all denominations. Some of the men came from Camp Funston, 30 miles away, to assist without pay in building the church.

"We practically had to use soldier labor. The people in Abilene couldn't get away from their jobs to work on Saturdays. So except for work late in the afternoon, it was up to our 10th Division men," says Chaplain Lee.

Appraised at $10,000, the church was built for half that amount. The organization is in keeping with the policy of the Church of the Nazarene to organize 1000 new churches in 1948-52.
